

Eligibility Criteria

All applications will be reviewed by a selection committee consisting of independent experts, recognized for their knowledge of the Canadian art market, their professional experience and their integrity.

Applications will be evaluated using the following criteria:

- The applicant is recognized as a private gallery, a business whose principal activities are related to the commerce of contemporary art
- The gallery is recognized to represent the work of professional artists
- At the fair, the majority of work presented by the gallery will be contemporary art coming from the primary market
- The gallery has participated in at least another fair in the past three years, and has demonstrated particular care to the hanging and presentation of works

Should applications be of equal quality, submissions from AGAC members will be given priority.
